

"Allow Additional Attempt" Option is not Available for Graggable Group Material in while the Anonymous Grading is On

Article Number

000056746

---

Description

While anonymous grading is active, an instructor cannot allow an extra attempt for the group as there is no option present. However, an instructor can allow additional attempts for individual assignments while anonymous grading is on. The option appears after the anonymous grading is complete.

---

KB Product

Learn SaaS

---

Last Modified Date

Fri Apr 11 19:15:49 GMT 2025

---

Release

SaaS

---

Release (General)

SaaS

---

Steps to Replicate

1. Log into a Blackboard Learn SaaS (Original Experience) environment as Instructor
2. Navigate to a course > Create an individual anonymous assignment with a single attempt
3. Create a group anonymous assignment with single attempt and assign the assignment to the group
4. Enroll a Student into the course
5. Log in as Student
6. Submit submissions to both individual and group assignments
7. Login as Instructor
8. Navigate to Grade Center > Full Grade Center
9. Click on the chevron on the column for the Student and observe option to Allow Additional Attempt
10. Locate the group assignment column

Observed Behavior:

No chevron or option to allow an additional attempt is visible.

Expected Behavior:

The chevron and page to allow an additional attempt is available.

---

Summary

While anonymous grading is active, an instructor cannot allow an extra attempt for the group as there is no option present. However, an instructor can allow additional attempts for individual assignments while anonymous grading is on. The option appears after the anonymous grading is complete.

---

Target Release

Will Not Fix

---

Title

"Allow Additional Attempt" Option is not Available for Gradable Group Material in while the Anonymous Grading is On

---